  - b. College of Arts and Sciences.
  - c. College of Business.
  - d. College of Education.
  - e. College of Fine Arts
  - f. College of HPER.
2. From Vice President Williams -- request for replacements for Dr. E. Keiter and Dr. Saltmarsh on the Committee on Reinstatement. The Chair will appoint two members of CAA at the next meeting to serve on this committee.

III. Areas of Concentration in the Recreation Administration Major, Department of Recreation and Leisure Studies (86-124).

Dean Buckellew introduced Dr. Bryden and Mr. Smith of the Department of Recreation and Leisure Studies. The proposal was presented and questions by the CAA members were answered. The motion to approve the proposed areas of concentration in the Recreation Administration major passed unanimously.

This action approved the following to become effective immediately:

"Electives approved by advisor and department chairperson" is to be changed to read -- "Concentration approved by advisor and department chairperson.....12 sem. hrs." The following copy to be added to the major requirements for a B.S. degree in Recreation Administration.

CONCENTRATION I -- Therapeutic Recreation -- In addition to the regular professional courses, students will take a minimum of 12 semester hours from four of six areas of study, sociology, psychology, special education, health studies, and home economics as recommended by the advisor and based on the students' interests and qualifications. It is recommended that the students expand this area to 18 hours from four of the six areas to qualify for certification by the National Council for Therapeutic Recreation Certification.

CONCENTRATION II -- Commercial and Employee Recreation -- In addition to the regular professional courses, students will take a minimum of 12 semester hours from the areas of accounting, finance, management, business education, and economics as recommended by the advisor. It is recommended that students expand this to 18 semester hours to obtain a minor in Business Administration involving a total of 24 semester hours.

CONCENTRATION III -- Cultural Arts -- In addition to the regular professional courses, students will take a minimum of 12 semester hours from the areas of dance, theatre arts, music, fine arts, and art as recommended by the advisor and based on the students' interests and qualifications.

CONCENTRATION IV -- Outdoor Recreation -- In addition to the regular professional courses, students will take a minimum of 12 semester hours from the areas of botany, zoology, geology, physics, and life science as recommended by the students' advisor and based on the students' interests and qualifications.

CONCENTRATION V -- Sports and Fitness Administration -- In addition to the regular professional courses, students will take a minimum of 12 semester hours from the professional physical education courses as recommended by the students' advisor and based on the students' interests and qualifications.

CONCENTRATION VI -- Public Administration -- In addition to the regular professional courses, students will take a minimum of 12 semester hours from the areas of political science, management, and computers as recommended by the students' advisor and based on the students' interests and qualifications.

CONCENTRATION VII -- Resource Management and Maintenance -- In addition to the regular professional courses, students will take a minimum of 12 semester hours from the areas of botany, industrial technology, technology education, zoology, earth science, geology, and life sciences as recommended by the students' advisor and based on the students' interests and qualifications.

IV. Change in Dietetics Option, Department of Home Economics (86-125).

Dr. Ruth Dow, Department of Home Economics was introduced and presented the proposed changes. The motion to approve the change passed unanimously.

This action approved the following to become effective Fall, 1987:

DELETE -- PSY 3620, Psychology of Learning, from the Dietetics Option in the B.S degree in Home Economics major and --
ADD -- PSY 4765, Methods in Behavioral Management.

V. Board of Governors Annual Academic Program Review (BOG/APPRS) Reports - (Agenda Item - 87-1). (Dr. McGown arrived at this time.)

Dr. Saltmarsh moved and Dr. Downs seconded the motion to accept Vice President Schick's recommendations on the status of the academic programs. Dr. Hansen, Chair, Department of Music, spoke to the Council on the "Status Quo*" recommendation from Vice President Schick and stated his concern on the performance option of the music degree program. This program and others were subsequently discussed by the Council members and the Council's recommendations are listed on the BOG/APPR inventory attached. Voting on these recommendations will be later.

The meeting adjourned at 3:00 p.m.
